Rock Island Management Called "Irrigation Feat'

Financial jugglery connected with the ock Island railway was termed in the ouse today an "irrigation feat which night be commended to the attention of the United States Reciamation Serve." Speaking for his resolution to vestigate its financing, Congressman reen of Jowa declared the need for ich inquiry is as great as in the New inven and Frisco road cases.

He charged that the association which cated the "Tin Plate trust" "poured 11,000,000 of water, not exactly into ut upon the railway company's stock and bonds." He charged the formation of a hold or company within a holding company, ving the association control without such investment on their own part.
